1. Following are details on the location of public institutions in Timisoara:

- a. Provincial Council (Sfatul Popular Regional) - in the former building of the Resedinta Tinutului, on Bulevardul 23 August, opposite the branching off of Strada Diaconovici Loga. The building, erected during World War II, is a large three-story structure and apparently houses in its basement an amplifier station.
- b. The Municipal Council - in a former secondary school building on Strada Diaconovici Loga, opposite the Maxim Gorky (formerly Capital) Cinema. The building has two upper stories with about 25 rooms.
- c. Provincial Court, Town Court and Prosecution Authority - in the old Tribunalul building on Strada Gheorghe Dimitrov, corner of Strada Popa Sapca. The groundfloor of this three-story building houses the tax offices (Administratia Financiara).
- d. Provincial Securitate headquarters - in five buildings at 40-50, Strada Diaconovici Loga. A two-story former dwelling house on the opposite side (approximately 33, Strada Diaconovici Loga) serves to accommodate Securitate officers coming for inspections from Bucharest. The former Dr. Kakuk Sanatorium is also occupied by the Securitate.
- e. Town police headquarters - in a large two-story building (the former property of one Dr. Nashitz) at 10 Splaiul Tudor Vladimirescu. The house at No. 12, on the same street, is also occupied by the police and contains the passport office.
- f. Police station for the Iosefin Ward) - on Strada Vacarescu, corner of Bulevardul 6 Martie, and the station for the Elisabeti Ward is on a lane branching off from Bulevardul Mihai Viteazul.
- g. Provincial police headquarters and office for the issue of identification cards - in the former Prefectura building on Piata Unirii.
